

Grammar for Meaning: Teach, Practice, Apply (KS1 & KS2)

Course information

- Practical strategies for teaching National Curriculum grammar with purpose and playfulness, including dice games, drama and physical response, using visuals and human sentences
- Using grammar for clarity and precision
- Applications for grammar in writing

About the facilitators

Lindsay Pickton has supported schools as a Learning and Teaching Advisor since 2001. He has successfully supported numerous schools, specialising in all aspects of Primary Literacy. Lindsay provides inspiring and practical training and consultancy in diverse aspects of English, from grammar and spelling to drama and the enjoyment of reading.

Christine Chen is an experienced English, More Able and Curriculum Development specialist based in Kingston upon Thames. She has supported numerous primary schools, alliances and federations successfully across London, Surrey and Wiltshire. Complementing her effective schools support, Christine writes for Oxford University Press, Pearson, Harper Collins, Discovery Education and Teach Primary

When: Tuesday 1st February 2022 3:45-5:45

Where: Online webinars

Cost: £60 per delegate/£180 school sign up - multiple participants