1. Introduction

- 1.1. This policy outlines the arrangements for Shared Parental Leave and pay in relation to the birth of a child. If you are adopting a child please refer to the Shared Parental Leave (Adoption) Policy
- 1.2. This policy applies to LETTA Trust employees

2. Frequently used terms

2.1. The definitions in this paragraph apply in this policy:

- Expected week of childbirth (EWC):
The week, beginning on a Sunday, in which the doctor or midwife expects your child to be born
- Parent:
One of two people who will share the main responsibility for the child's upbringing (and who may be either the mother, the father, or the mother's partner if not the father)
- Partner:
Spouse, civil partner or someone living with another person in an enduring family relationship, but not a sibling, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew
- Qualifying Week:
The fifteenth week before the expected week of childbirth

3. What is shared parental leave?

Shared parental leave is a type of leave that gives you and your partner more flexibility in how to share care of your child in the first year after birth than simply taking maternity and paternity leave. Assuming you are both eligible, you will be able to choose how to split available leave between you and can decide to be off work at the same time or at different times. You may be able to take leave in more than one block. SPL must end no later than one year after the birth of the child and any SPL not taken by the child's first birthday is lost.

Shared parental leave enables parents to commit to ending their maternity pay at a future date, and to share the untaken balance of leave and pay as shared parental leave with their partner, or to return to work early from maternity or adoption leave and opt in to shared parental leave at a later date.

Shared parental leave should not be confused with ordinary parental leave, which is unaffected by shared parental leave. Ordinary parental leave is the entitlement to up to 18 weeks' unpaid leave. There is a separate policy on ordinary parental leave.

4. Entitlement to SPL

4.1. You are entitled to SPL in relation to the birth of a child if:

- a) you are the child's mother, and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the child's father (or your partner, if the father is not your partner)
- b) you are the child's father and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the child's mother
- c) you are the mother's partner and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the mother (where the child's father does not share the main responsibility with the mother)

4.2. The following conditions must also be fulfilled:

- a) you must have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with us by the end of the qualifying week, and still be employed by us in the week before the leave is to be taken
- b) the other parent must have worked (in an employed or self-employed capacity) in at least 26 of the 66 weeks before the EWC and had average weekly earnings as indicated in the regulations
- c) you and the other parent must provide the respective employers with the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end any maternity leave, statutory maternity pay (SMP) or maternity allowance (MA) periods

4.3. The total amount of SPL available is 52 weeks, less the weeks spent by the child's mother on maternity leave (or the weeks in which the mother has been in receipt of SMP or MA if she is not entitled to maternity leave)

4.4. If you are the mother you cannot start SPL until after the compulsory maternity leave period, which lasts until two weeks after the birth

4.5. You can request to take shared parental leave in one continuous block (in which case the trust is required to accept the request as long as you meet the eligibility and notice requirements), or as a number of discontinuous blocks of leave (in which case you need the trust's agreement). A maximum of three requests for leave per pregnancy can normally be made by each parent.

4.6. The first two weeks following birth are the compulsory maternity leave period and are reserved for the mother. This means that the mother cannot curtail her maternity leave to take shared parental leave until two weeks after the birth and the maximum period that the parents could take as shared parental leave is 50 weeks between them.

4.7. However, the mother's partner can begin a period of shared parental leave at any time from the date of the child's birth (but the partner should bear in mind that they are entitled to take up to two weeks' paternity leave following the birth of their child, which they will lose if shared parental leave is taken first). The mother and partner must take any shared parental leave within 52 weeks of birth.

5. Opting in to shared parental leave and pay

- 5.1. Not less than eight weeks before the date you intend your SPL to start, you must give us a written notice to opt-in to the shared parental leave scheme (Appendix A) which includes:
- a. your full name and the full name of the other parent
 - b. if you are the child's mother, the start and end dates of your maternity leave
 - c. if you are the child's father or the mother's partner, the start and end dates of the mother's maternity leave, or if she is not entitled to maternity leave, the start and end dates of any SMP or MA period
 - d. the total SPL available, which is 52 weeks minus the number of weeks' maternity leave, SMP or MA period taken or to be taken
 - e. how many weeks of the available SPL will be allocated to you and how many to the other parent (You can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice, and you do not have to use your full allocation)
 - f. if you are claiming statutory shared parental pay (ShPP), the total ShPP available, which is 39 weeks minus the number of weeks of the SMP or MA period taken or to be taken), payable during the 52 weeks following the birth of the child
 - g. how many weeks of the available SPL will be allocated to you and how many to the other parent. (You can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice, and you do not have to use your full allocation)
 - h. an indication of the pattern of leave you are thinking of taking, including suggested start and end dates for each period of leave (see paragraphs 9, 10, 11 and 12 for information on taking leave). This indication will not be binding at this stage, but please give as much information as you can about your future intentions
 - i. declarations by you and the other parent that you both meet the statutory conditions for entitlement to SPL and ShPP (see Appendix A - Birth)

6. Ending maternity leave

- 6.1. If you are the child's mother and want to opt-in to the SPL scheme, you must give us at least eight weeks' written notice to end your maternity leave early (a curtailment notice) (see Appendix B – Birth)) before you can take SPL. The notice must state the date your maternity leave will end. You can give the notice before or after you give birth, but you cannot end your maternity leave until at least two weeks after birth. You must also provide at least one week before what would be the end of the additional maternity leave period.

- 6.2. You must also give us, at the same time as the curtailment notice a Notice to Opt-in to Shared Parental Leave scheme (Appendix A) (see paragraph 5) or a written declaration that the child's father or your partner has given their employer an opt-in notice and that you have given the necessary declarations in that notice
- 6.3. The other parent may be eligible to take SPL from their employer before your maternity leave ends, provided you have given the curtailment notice
- 6.4. The curtailment notice is usually binding and cannot be revoked. You can only revoke a curtailment notice if maternity leave has not yet ended and one of the following applies:
 - a) if you realise that neither you nor the other parent are in fact eligible for SPL or ShPP, you can revoke the curtailment notice in writing up to eight weeks after it was given
 - b) if you gave the curtailment notice before giving birth, you can revoke it in writing up to eight weeks after it was given, or up to six weeks after birth, whichever is later
 - c) if the other parent has died
- 6.5. Once you revoke a curtailment notice you cannot submit a second curtailment notice, unless the revocation was given in the circumstances in paragraph b)b)

7. Ending your partner's maternity leave or pay

- 7.1. If you are not the mother and she is still on maternity leave or claiming SMP or MA, you will only be able to take SPL once the mother has either:
 - a) returned to work
 - b) given her employer a curtailment notice to end her maternity leave
 - c) given her employer a curtailment notice to end her SMP (if she is entitled to SMP but not maternity leave)
 - d) given the benefits office an ending maternity leave early (curtailment notice) to end her MA (if she is not entitled to maternity leave or SMP)

8. Evidence of entitlement

- 8.1. You must also provide on request:
 - a) A copy of the birth certificate (or if you have not yet obtained a birth certificate, a signed declaration of the child's date and place of birth)
 - b) The name and address of the other parent's employer (or a declaration that they are self-employed)

9. Discussions regarding shared parental leave

- 9.1. If you are considering taking SPL you are encouraged to contact the Trust's HR manager to arrange an informal discussion as early as possible regarding your potential entitlement, to talk about your plans and to enable us to support you
- 9.2. The HR manager may upon receiving a notification of entitlement to take SPL seek to arrange an informal discussion with you to talk about your intentions and how you expect to use your SPL entitlement
- 9.3. Upon receiving a notice to opt-in to the shared parental leave scheme form (Appendix A – Birth), the HR manager will arrange a meeting to discuss it. Where a notice is for a single period of continuous leave (a period of a number of weeks taken in a single unbroken period of leave), or for discontinuous leave (where you intend to return to work between periods of leave) and it can be approved without further discussion, a meeting may not be necessary
- 9.4. Where a meeting is arranged it will take place in private and be arranged in advance. If the initial date is problematic then another date will be arranged if possible. If an alternative date cannot be arranged then a discussion may take place over the telephone
- 9.5. At the meeting you may, if you wish, be accompanied by a workplace colleague or a trade union representative
- 9.6. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss in detail the leave proposed and what will happen while you are away from work. Where it is a request for discontinuous leave the discussion may also focus on how the leave proposal could be agreed, whether a different arrangement would be agreeable to you and us and what the outcome may be if no agreement is reached. The trust can:
 - Consent to the pattern of leave requested;
 - Propose an alternative pattern of leave; or
 - Refuse the pattern of leave requested

10. Booking your SPL dates

- 10.1. Having opted into the SPL scheme you will need to give notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C – Birth) informing us the start and end dates of your leave. This can be given at the same time as your opt-in notice (Appendix A), or it can be given later, as long as it is given at least eight weeks before the start of your leave. You must also state in your notice of dates for shared parental leave the dates on which you intend to claim shared parental pay (ShPP), if applicable
- 10.2. If your notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Birth) gives dates for a single period of continuous leave of SPL you will be entitled to take the leave set out in the notice
- 10.3. You can submit up to three notices of dates for shared parental leave (Appendix C - Birth). This may enable you to take up to three separate blocks of SPL (although if you give a notice to vary or cancel a period of leave this will in most cases count as a further notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C – Birth))

11. Procedure for requesting discontinuous periods of SPL

- 11.1. In general, a notice of dates for shared parental leave (Appendix C - Birth) should set out a single continuous block of leave. We may, in some cases, be willing to consider a notice of dates for SPL where the SPL is split into shorter periods (of at least a week) with periods of work in between. It is best to discuss this with your line manager in advance of submitting any notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C –Birth). This will give us more time to consider the request and hopefully agree a pattern of leave with you from the start
- 11.2. You must submit a notice of dates for SPL (Appendix C - Birth) setting out the requested pattern of leave at least eight weeks before the requested start date. If we are unable to agree to your request straight away, there will be a two-week discussion period. At the end of that period, we will confirm any agreed arrangements in writing. If we have not reached an agreement, you will be entitled to take the full amount of requested SPL as one continuous block, starting on the start date given in your notice (for example, if you requested three separate periods of four weeks each, you will be entitled to one 12-week period of leave). Alternatively, you may:
 - a) choose a new start date (which must be at least eight weeks after your original notice of dates for shared parental leave was given), and tell us within five days of the end of the two-week discussion period
 - b) withdraw your notice of dates for shared Parental Leave within fifteen days of the date of the Notice (in which case it will not be counted and you may submit a new one if you choose)

12. Changing the dates or cancelling your SPL

- 12.1. You can cancel a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date in the notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Birth)
- 12.2. You can change the start date for a period of leave, or the length of the period of leave, by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the original start date or the new start date, whichever is earlier
- 12.3. You do not need to give eight weeks' notice if you are changing the dates of your SPL because your child has been born earlier than the EWC, where you wanted to start your SPL a certain length of time (but not more than eight weeks) after birth. In such cases please notify us in writing of the change as soon as you can
- 12.4. You can change the end date for a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the original end date and the new end date, whichever is earlier

- 12.5. You can change split periods of leave into a single continuous period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date of the first period, or in writing at least eight weeks before the original end date if the leave has already commenced
- 12.6. You can request that a continuous period of leave be split into two or more discontinuous periods with periods of work in between. We will consider any such request as set out in paragraph 11
- 12.7. A notice to cancel or change a period of leave will count as one of your three notices of dates for shared parental leave, unless:
 - a) A notice of Dates for Shared Parental Leave (see Appendix C) requesting a discontinuous period of SPL is withdrawn by you on or before the fifteenth day after the notice was given
 - b) The variation is a result of your child being born earlier or later than the EWC
 - c) The variation is at our request
 - d) We agree otherwise

13. Shared parental pay (ShPP)

- 13.1 ShPP is payable for a maximum of 37 weeks over a period of 52 weeks following the birth of the child, as 2 weeks Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP) or Maternity Allowance (MA) must be taken immediately after the birth
- 13.2 You are entitled to benefit from all of your contractual terms and conditions (with the exception of remuneration) during any period of shared parental leave. Your usual remuneration is replaced by statutory shared parental pay if you are eligible to receive it, with up to 37 weeks' statutory shared parental pay available for parents to share between them while on shared parental leave (although it will normally be less than this because of the maternity leave that mothers usually take before the birth).
- 13.3 Any statutory shared parental pay due during shared parental leave will be paid at a rate set by the Government for the relevant tax year, or at 90% of your average weekly earnings, if this figure is lower than the Government's set weekly rate
- 13.4 It is up to the parents as to who is paid the statutory shared parental pay and how it is apportioned between them.
- 13.5 You may be able to claim ShPP if you have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with us at the end of the Qualifying Week and your average earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit set by the government each tax year
- 13.6 ShPP is paid at a rate set by the government each year

14. Statutory parental bereavement pay and leave

- 8.1 In the unfortunate event of a child dying before they turn 18 or as a result of a stillbirth after 24 weeks of pregnancy, you may be eligible for up to 2 weeks of leave and pay
- 8.2 You can take 2 weeks leave from the first day of employment for each child who has died or is stillborn if you're eligible
- 8.3 You can take 2 weeks together or separately or only one week of leave, but this must be taken within 56 weeks of the death or stillbirth
- 8.4 Parents who have been employed continuously for 26 weeks before the child's death and are paid above the lower earnings limit are entitled to two weeks of statutory paid leave.
- 8.5 This leave cannot be taken at the same time any other statutory leave i.e. maternity and paternity leave
- 8.6 In the event that a bereaved partner has already taken shared parental leave, the condition preventing them from taking additional paternity leave is removed. This means you will still be entitled to take paternity leave, ensuring you have the necessary time to grieve and care for your family's needs.
- 8.7 If both the mother and child pass away, you will still be eligible to take leave. This policy ensures that you can take the necessary time off without the constraints of previous leave taken.

15. Rights during shared parental leave

- 15.1 During shared parental leave, all terms and conditions of your contract except normal pay will continue. Salary will be replaced by statutory shared parental pay if you are eligible for it.
- 15.2 This means that, while sums payable by way of salary will cease, all other benefits will remain in place. For example, holiday entitlement will continue to accrue. Pension contributions will continue to be paid.

16. Other terms during shared parental leave

- 16.1. Your terms and conditions of employment remain in force during shared parental leave, except for the terms relating to pay
- 16.2. If you are a member of the employer's pension scheme, we will make employer pension contributions during any period of paid SPL, based on your normal salary, in accordance with the pension scheme rules. Any employee contributions you make will be based on the amount of any shared parental pay you are receiving, unless you inform us that you wish to make up any shortfall

17. Keeping in touch

- 17.1. We may make reasonable contact with you from time to time during your SPL although we will keep this to a minimum. This may include contacting you to discuss arrangements for your return to work
- 17.2. You may ask or be asked to work (including attending training) on up to 20 "shared parental leave in touch" days (SPLIT days) during your SPL. This is in addition to any "keeping in touch" days (KIT days) that you may have taken during maternity leave. KIT/SPLIT days are not compulsory and must be discussed and agreed with us. Any SPLIT days worked do not extend the period of SPL
- 17.3. You will be paid at your normal basic rate of pay for time spent working on a SPLIT day and this will be inclusive of any shared parental pay entitlement

18. Returning to work

- 18.1. If you want to end a period of SPL early, you must give us eight weeks' written notice of the new return date. This should be addressed to the Headteacher. If you have already given us three notices of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C - Birth) requesting that a discontinuous period of SPL is withdrawn by you on or before the fifteenth day after the notice was given, you will not be able to end your SPL early without our agreement
- 18.2. If you want to extend your SPL, assuming you still have unused SPL entitlement remaining, you must submit a new notice of dates for shared parental leave (see Appendix C) at least eight weeks before the date you were due to return to work. If you have already submitted notices you will not be able to extend your SPL without our agreement. If you are unable to request more SPL you may be able to request annual leave or ordinary parental leave, which will be subject to our need for you to be at work
- 18.3. You are normally entitled to return to work in the position you held before starting SPL, and on the same terms of employment, when added to any other period of shared parental leave, statutory maternity leave or statutory paternity leave taken by you in relation to the same child, is 26 weeks or less. However, if it is not reasonably practicable for us to allow you to return into the same position, we may give you another suitable and appropriate job on terms and conditions that are not less favourable, but only in the following circumstances:
 - a) if your SPL and any maternity or paternity leave you have taken adds up to more than 26 weeks in total (whether or not taken consecutively)
 - b) if you took SPL consecutively with more than four weeks of ordinary parental leave
- 18.4. If you want to change your hours or other working arrangements on return from SPL you should make a request under our Flexible Working Policy. It is helpful if such requests are made as early as possible
- 18.5. If you decide you do not want to return to work you should give notice of resignation in accordance with your contract.
